Earth Trek' s USB Tape
Dispenser

Toshiba' s revolutionary helmet is simply absurd »

Don' t you think that the tape dispenser that sits on your office desk simply just takes up too much space? Even though it stores and dispenses your roll of tape, it' d be much better that it could have additional functionalities to be worth on your desk. Earth Trek, the Hong Kong company has added additional functionality on a tape dispenser. Its new tape dispenser is not only an ordinary one, it' s a combination of a USB hub and a tape dispenser. Replace your ordinary tape dispenser on your office desk with the Earth Trek' s USB Tape Dispenser.

It works as good as your current tape dispenser, but it also gives more usb ports for your PC to connect to up to ~~four~~ three more USB gadgets (The one at the back supposed to go your PC' s USB port). It comes in large and small versions and can naturally be affixed with your very own logo. No words on pricing and availability yet.
